

UoN Awarded for Best Employer

The University of Nairobi has received four awards at the Employer of the Year Awards (EYA).

The University has been named winner in the Inclusiveness and Diversity category.

At the ceremony which was held on May 19, 2017, UoN was also crowned the 1st runner's up in the Innovation and Productivity category and 2nd runners up in Leadership and Governance category and 2nd runner's up overall.

The Employer of the Year Awards is an initiative by the Federation of Kenya Employers (FKE). It is aimed at promoting and encouraging best practices in Corporate Performance, People Management and Industrial Relations among employers in Kenya. This was the first annual Employer of the Year Awards gala which publicly honoured employers implementing best practices in the areas reviewed.

The initiative is in a bid to raise and sustain productivity, enterprise performance and responsibility.
