

Finance Department Hold a Team Building

The University of Nairobi's internal audit and finance staff hold a social forum at the Arziki restaurant, Chiromo Campus.

During the team building, the finance officer, Mr. Peter Busienei urged the staff from both departments to work as a team. This is in line with the University's core value of team work. He also urged them to be stewards and brand ambassadors of the University as they always ensure that the University gets value for its money at all times.

The Internal Audit staff was also encouraged to enhance their skills always as they seek to increase the University's financial prudence and to be a world class university. The University budget, procurement plan, performance contracting and the strategic plan are among the financial tools that the staff were urged to have knowledge of.

Chief Internal Auditor, Mr. Patrick Agutu urged the staff to use their potential to help the University advance to world class status.

On his part the ICTC Director, Mr. Ibrahim Otieno noted that the Internal Audit team need to be able to audit information systems and detect fraud. In that regards, he urged them to advance their careers.
